

Below are the meeting minutes for the 23 Nov 2012 IAP meeting

Assumption Parish:

- Continues to perform actions listed on the Assumption Parish IAP.
- Six AreaRae monitors remain in place at this time.
- The next public meeting is tentatively set for mid December.
- Next formal IAP meeting will be at 3:00 PM Monday (11/26)

Texas Brine:

- Remediation of sinkhole continues.
- No changes in the sink hole.
- 3 Oil Mops are working.
- Well 3A is shut in until 26 Nov
- RW1 well is currently flaring at a rate of 17.9 mcf/day.
- RW2 is shut in because of H2S in the gas stream.
- Texas Brine does not plan to do any clean-up on the site on Saturday or Sunday;
- Installation of 6 new geoprobe wells will begin on November 26th
- Total barrels of oil removed from the sinkhole is now 2770. No roll-off boxes of vegetative material left the site today

DEQ:

- Continues to perform the community and boat air monitoring runs. No significant readings detected today.
- No indoor monitoring events performed today. Next in-home monitoring is scheduled for Tuesday (11/27)
- MAML has been redeployed to Baton Rouge for maintenance.

DNR and Shaw:

- ORW #2 flared today at a rate of 50 mcf/day. All other relief wells remain shut in.
- Shaw continues to monitor and take pressure samples from the installed shallow water geoprobes.
- Shaw has no activities planned for this weekend except to continue to monitor the vent wells

Other State Agencies:

- No changes in their operations concerning the Bayou Corne NG Seep Incident.

End of Report